RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Efficacy of an Educational Intervention on Knowledge, Attitudes, Beliefs, and Practices of Healthcare Professionals Before and After an Anti-Human Trafficking Training Mar 2023

- An educational intervention examining the knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, and practices of an institutions' HCPs in the Emergency Department (ED) and Mother-Baby Units (MBUs) pertaining to victims of HT pre-intervention and post-intervention
- The researchers are proposing an education-based interventional study to examine the efficacy of an innovative, evidence-based, online, asynchronous training module (NUAHT Training Curriculum) created by the researchers who are SMEs, and one of which is a survivor of HT
- A pre-test survey will be completed to determine the knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, and practices of the institutions' HCPs in the ED and MBUs pertaining to HT; post-test survey will be completed by the same participants after the implementation of the NUAHT Training Curriculum to determine the efficacy of the training

Nursing Students' Knowledge of and Exposure to Human Trafficking Content in Undergraduate Curricula Nov 2022 - Jan 2023

- The purpose of this study was to gain insight into nursing students' level of knowledge and exposure to human trafficking content in undergraduate curricula
- A cross-sectional quantitative study was conducted using the National Student Nurses Association (NSNA) as the population to obtain a nationally representative sample of current or recently graduated nursing students in the U.S. Data were collected electronically using the researchers' developed tool, Student Nurse Human Trafficking Education Assessment Tool (SNHTEAT) Published in Nurse Education Today PMID: 37515956 DOI: 10.1016/j.nedt.2023.105920

| • Attended the Bags of Hope event for the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) and Lexis Nexis Risk Solutions. I passed out approximately one hundred bags of hope to first responders, victim advocates, police officers, children of domestic violence, human trafficking survivors at an event by Hannah's House in Wachula, Florida. Bags given provided support for multiple counties such as Hendry and Hardee, offering "go bags" to provide support as children are exiting human trafficking or violent situations. | 2025 |
| • Survivors of Human Trafficking and their families were provided with meals, water, and pet supplies pre-hurricane Idalia by driving to their homes and delivering to them | 2023 |
