

SPEAKER BIO

Tammy Toney-Butler, a retired ER nurse and Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner, co-founded Nurses United Against Human Trafficking (NUAHT) in 2020 alongside Dr. Francine Bono-Neri. Tammy went on to found Reflective Spaces Ministry, Corp, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, in 2021.

Tammy has spoken at the United Nations, American Nurses Association (ANA) General Assembly, ANA New York, ANA Georgia, ANA Vermont, and has been a guest on network television.

Following the whisper of the Holy Spirit, she and her husband relocated to Lee County, Florida. They purchased a ten-acre parcel of land to begin a trauma-focused, healing ministry.

Tammy, a Healing Evangelist, can be found on the streets, going after the ones. Tammy's lived experience provides a unique teaching style and trauma-focused lens perspective, offering survivors environments conducive to healing mind, body, and spirit.

Tammy Toney-Butler, as a teenager, survived the loss of her father to suicide. She overcame being a victim of child sex trafficking and coping with the aftermath of trauma through various addictions through her faith in the Lord Jesus and is a powerful testimony of faith in action.

In 2023, Reflective Hour with Tammy Toney-Butler was launched in Podcast format and on YouTube as a platform for transformational healing in Christ. Reflective Spaces Ministry podcast was launched in Podcast format and on YouTube in 2024.

Tammy is outspoken in her mission to provide a trauma-responsive pulpit and compassionate, merciful lens through which one offers pastoral support. Love is her focus because the love of Jesus Christ heals all wounds, delivers, and transforms.

Tammy has become the mouthpiece for God's message of hope and healing worldwide. She is a published author whose multiple literary works have been featured in the National Library of Medicine, Congress.gov, textbooks, and several professional journals. Her memoir and healing devotional with journal pages are available on Amazon and Kindle.

From the ranch to the pulpit, from the trailer park to the assembly hall, God has moved mightily in Tammy's life, and the Lord Jesus Christ gets all the credit and honor for her transformation and restoration.